COMPREHENSIVE COMMUNITY ACTION PROGRAM

Rhode Island Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)

Renewal Application Instructions 2026-2027

PLEASE READ INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

Dear Heating Assistance Applicant,

The Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) is administered through the Rhode Island Department of Human Services in partnership with your local Community Action Agency (CAA). LIHEAP is funded by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Our mission is to assist Rhode Islanders in managing their home energy needs.

To be considered for heating assistance in the 2026 -2027 heating season (starting in October), you must fill out and sign the application form or renewal form and provide COPIES of the required documents.

The documents that you must submit as proof of Identity, Energy Expense, Residence, and Income are listed below. Please remember that it is against the law to give false information or to withhold information when applying for heating assistance.

✓ Required Documents

☐ LIHEAP Signed Application

☐ Proof of Identity (for new applicants or new household members)

- Photo ID of the Applicant
- Proof of Social Security numbers for the Applicant and each Household Member.
  - Social Security cards or an official document from a government agency that has the Social Security number on it.
  - U.S. citizens, permanent residents, and qualified aliens can get LIHEAP benefits if they qualify.
  - If proof of Social Security number for a household member is not available, please contact your local CAA.

- For each Household Member besides the Applicant, provide one of the following documents:

  - Official Birth Certificate
  - A driver's license
  - State identification card
  - U.S. Military photo identification
  - Passport
  - Any official document from a government agency
  - Certificate of U.S. Citizenship
  - Certificate of Naturalization
  - Other immigration documentation

☐ Proof of Energy Expense

- Copy of a recent heating and electric bill with the Applicant or a household member's name and address on it. To be eligible for certain types of payment plans or discount rate with RI Energy, the utility bills must be in the LIHEAP applicant's name.
- If heat is included in your rent, please submit a copy of your lease or a Landlord Information Form.

☐ Proof of Residence (provide one of the following documents)

- Copy of a mortgage statement or a copy of a property tax bill.
- Copy of the lease, rent receipt (showing address) or the Landlord Information Form.
- Utility bill, deliverable fuel bill, or other household bills.
